Tbilisi is an historical city. The name “tbilisi” came from “tbil”, which means “warm”; from the hot thermal springs near the city. Already in the name Tbilisi carries on a magical power of attraction. It indicates that there should be something very friendly and welcoming, dear-to-heart, like a home. The word “warm” promises hospitality and joy.

City center preserved narrow lanes and large jagged houses formed near courtyards. Any time city guests can tread through the quiet streets between the old houses and churches and relax wonderfully after the refreshing walk. For those who prefer loud sunny holidays and relax with friends Tbilisi offers dream holidays that will remain forever in their memories. Tbilisi people keep optimistic about the future through their passion for music, literature, dance and wine.

Georgian wine is wonderful and famous worldwide. World famous Georgian cuisine is also unique. Old Tbilisi is being restored with flashy art galleries, cool cafes and high quality restaurants.

Visitors admire Tbilisi's oldest quarter, known as Abanotubani, where the strangest of all and the most rewarding are perhaps the ancient baths of Abanotubani. Indeed, Tbilisi owes some of its charm to the lingering spirit of artful commerce. According to visitors, Tbilisi is also an outstanding place for shopping. Everywhere sometimes antique and of real value can turn up.
