

Travel grant for NNFM Helsinki 2017

One travel grant is offered to a younger clinician/researcher (age < 35 years) who would like to present his/her work at the annual meeting of the Nordic Network of Fetal Medicine (NNFM) in Helsinki May 2017. The grant will cover travel and accommodation expenses. The application should be addressed by e-mail to Vedran.stefanovic@hus.fi with a short CV of the applicant and the abstract of the proposed presentation including the research idea and results if available. The deadline is January 15, 2017.

The projects that promote collaboration in Fetal Medicine among Nordic (including Baltic) countries would be prioritized. The applications will be evaluated by a Committee appointed by the Steering Committee of NNFM. The person who has got a grant will be informed in February.

Greetings
